Risk Assessment Integration Module aka RAIMO

Marianne Mela
POLAMK
June 9th, 2021, online
Content of the presentation

i. IMPRODOVA on risk assessment
ii. The needs of the frontline responders (FLRs)
iii. RAIMO (Risk Assessment Integration Module)
iv. Conclusions: Towards a systematic RA process
i. IMPRODOVA's study on DV risk assessment

- Processes and procedures
- Training
- RA tools
- Human factors
- Multi-agency cooperation
ii. The needs of the frontline responders (FLRs)

1) Training of skills and knowledge, attitudes

2) Understanding of their role in the chain of multi-agency cooperation

3) Need to improve the existing processes
iii. RAIMO

- Case scenario "Nora"
- Identification of risk factors
- Purpose of risk assessment
- Risk management strategies
- Importance of multi-agency cooperation and the follow-up

Will be found at training.improdova.eu "Under construction"

Photo by Andrea Piacquadio from Pexels
IV. Conclusions: Towards a systematic RA process

• Next steps..
  – improving RA tools and procedures
  – strengthening the current policy and practice
  – enabling factors:
    – legislation allowing the exchange of information
    – agreements for multi-agency cooperation – technological innovations (e.g. AI)
    – Training: competencies